NANA STAR AND THE MOONMAN WINS A MOONBEAM CHILDREN'S BOOK AWARD

Fairfax, VA (November 4, 2008)- A panel of experts recently picked Nana Star and the Moonman as a bronze medal winner in the Book with Merchandise category for the 2008 Moonbeam Children's Book Awards.

The awards are designed to bring increased recognition to exemplary children's books and their creators, and to support childhood literacy and life-long reading. This year, 1,085 independently published children's books were entered into 30 categories.

Bronze medal winner Nana Star and the Moonman ($15.95) is the second storybook in the Nana Star series of books with comforting messages about friendship and faith. The sweet story is geared particularly for young readers who may not like the dark or are feeling lonely.

The Moonman Plushie ($19.99) is available to accompany Nana Star and the Moonman. This cuddly plush's head lights up for children who are afraid of the dark and also plays a soft comforting melody to lull them to sleep.

The Moonman plushie serves as a perfect complement to the book, which is why it was chosen as a winner in the Book with Merchandise category.

About ee Publishing & Productions

ee Publishing & Productions believe that the simple story of Nana Star will be a success in today's society where it is hard for children to find appropriate role models. They also believe that parents will welcome a return to simpler, nostalgic times -- helping families recapture a little calm in a hectic world.
